

Based on the AI suggestion I made changes to data structure descriptions to make sure they follow the same format when are passed with command or event between workflows. For example Order type had to be split into to differentiate between data structure used to pass order id to check order status and antistucture used to pass order info when sending an order to the exchange. Also made some generic suggestion changes to improve general workflow structure