I asked genAI for suggestion about our domain errors. It provided several suggestions on how to identify, discover and place appropriate domain errors in the right place. I removed the errors that does not belong to our domain such as db errors and system failures. And I add some more domain errors related to input format error, order invalid,, and calculation error.